CHAPTER II SCOPE

DIVISION I GENERAL PROVISIONS

2011, c. 12, s. 2.

2. The object of this Act is the elimination, at the source, of dangers to the health, safety and physical and mental well-being of workers.

This Act provides mechanisms for the participation of workers, workers’ associations, employers and employers’ associations in the realization of its object.

3. The fact that collective or individual protective means and equipment are put at the disposal of workers where necessary to meet their special needs must in no way reduce the effort expended to eliminate, at the source, dangers to the health, safety and physical or mental well-being of workers.

4. This Act is of public order and any derogating provision of any agreement or decree is absolutely null.

However, an agreement or decree may provide, in respect of a worker, a person performing functions under this Act or a certified association, more favourable provisions for the health, safety and physical or mental well-being of the worker.

5. Nothing in this Act or in the regulations may be construed as limiting the rights of a worker or certified association under a collective agreement, Act, regulation, decree, order in council or other order.

5.1. Subject to any incompatible provision, in particular with respect to the workplace, the provisions of this Act apply to a worker carrying on telework and to his employer.

2021, c. 27, s. 124.

6. This Act binds the Government, Government departments and agencies that are mandataries of the State.

7. Every self-employed natural person who, for another person, and without the assistance of workers, carries out work in a workplace where there are workers is subject to the obligations imposed on a worker pursuant to this Act and the regulations.

The person described in the first paragraph must, furthermore, comply with the obligations imposed on an employer in respect of products, processes, equipment, materials, contaminants and dangerous substances.

1979, c. 63, s. 7.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

8. The first paragraph of section 7 also applies to an employer or persons contemplated in paragraphs 1 and 2 of the definition of the word “worker”, in section 1, who carries out work at a workplace.

8.0.1. Chapter VIII.1 and sections 167, 170, 172 and 173 do not apply to the Act respecting labour standards (chapter N-1.1) or the Pay Equity Act (chapter E-12.001).

8.1. This Act and the regulations prevail over any inconsistent provision of the Act respecting off-highway vehicles (chapter V-1.3) and of the regulations thereunder.

DIVISION II

AGREEMENTS PERMITTING THE APPLICATION OF A SPECIAL PLAN

8.2. The purpose of this division is to authorize the implementation of any agreement relating to any matter within the scope of this Act between the Government and the Mohawks of Kahnawake represented by the Mohawk Council of Kahnawake and permitting the application of a special plan.

An agreement under the first paragraph shall ensure that the Kahnawake plan will have similar standards to those of the plan established in this matter by this Act.

8.3. The provisions of an agreement under section 8.2 apply despite any provision to the contrary in this Act unless otherwise provided in the agreement.

8.4. The Government may, by regulation, take any necessary measures to carry out this division, such as providing for any modifications to be applied to an existing Act or statutory instrument to take the existence of an agreement into account.

Any regulation made under the first paragraph requires the prior concurrence of the Mohawks of Kahnawake represented by the Mohawk Council of Kahnawake.

8.5. An agreement under section 8.2 is tabled by the Minister in the National Assembly within 30 days of its signature or, if the Assembly is not sitting, within 30 days of resumption.

The competent committee of the National Assembly must examine the agreement and any regulation made under the first paragraph of section 8.4.

8.6. An agreement is posted on the respective websites of the Ministère du Travail, the Ministère du Conseil exécutif and the Commission not later than the date of its coming into force and, should it cease to have effect, remains posted for five years after the date of cessation of effect.

8.7. The Commission may enter into an administrative agreement with the Mohawk Council of Kahnawake to facilitate the application of an agreement under section 8.2.

8.8.-8.12. (Replaced).

CHAPTER III RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

DIVISION I THE WORKER

§ 1. — General rights

9. Every worker has a right to working conditions that have proper regard for his health, safety and physical and mental well-being.

10. In accordance with this Act and the regulations, the worker is entitled, in particular,

(1) to training, information and counselling services in matters of occupational health and safety, especially in relation to his work and his work environment, and to receive appropriate instruction, training and supervision;

(2) to receive the preventive and curative health services relating to the risks to which he may be exposed, and his wages for the time spent in undergoing a medical examination during employment prescribed for the application of this Act and the regulations.

11. Every person contemplated in paragraphs 1 and 2 of the definition of the word “worker”, in section 1, has the rights granted to workers under sections 9, 10, and 32 to 48.

1979, c. 63, s. 11.

§ 2. — Right of refusal

12. A worker has a right to refuse to perform particular work if he has reasonable grounds to believe that the performance of that work would expose him to danger to his health, safety or physical or mental well-being, or would expose another person to a similar danger.

13. No worker may, however, exercise his right under section 12 if his refusal to perform the work puts the life, health, safety or physical or mental well-being of another person in immediate danger or if the conditions under which the work is to be performed are ordinary conditions in his kind of work.

14. Until an executory decision is rendered ordering a worker to resume work, the employer shall not, subject to section 17 and the second paragraph of section 19, have the work performed by another worker or by a person who ordinarily works outside the establishment and a worker who is exercising his right of refusal is deemed to be at work.

1979, c. 63, s. 14.

15. Where a worker refuses to perform particular work, he must immediately inform his supervisor, his employer or an agent of his employer; if none of these persons is present at the workplace, the worker must take reasonable steps to ensure that one of them is informed as soon as possible.

1979, c. 63, s. 15.

16. On being informed, the supervisor or, as the case may be, the employer or his agent shall convoke the safety representative to examine the matter and the corrective measures he intends to apply.

If there is no safety representative or if he is not available, the safety representative is replaced by a representative of the worker’s certified association, if any, and if he is available, or if none is available, by any other worker designated by the worker who refuses to perform his work.

1979, c. 63, s. 16.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

17. If the worker maintains his refusal to perform the work when his supervisor or, as the case may be, the employer or his agent and the safety representative or the person replacing him are of opinion that no danger exists to justify the worker's refusal to work or that his refusal to work is based on grounds that are acceptable in the particular case of that worker but do not justify another worker's refusing to perform the work, the employer may, notwithstanding section 14, have the work performed by another worker. That other worker may accept to perform the work after being informed that the right of refusal has been exercised, and of the reasons therefor.

18. After the situation has been examined, the intervention of an inspector may be required by

(1) the worker, if he maintains his refusal to perform the work;

(2) the safety representative or the person replacing him if he believes that the performance of the work exposes the worker to danger to his health, safety or physical or mental well-being or exposes another person to similar danger; or

(3) the employer or his agent, if he believes that the performance of the work does not expose the worker to danger to his health, safety or physical or mental well-being or does not expose another person to such danger, or that the corrective measures taken have dissipated the danger.

19. The inspector shall determine immediately whether or not a danger exists that would justify the worker's refusal to work. He may require the worker to resume his work. He may also prescribe temporary measures and require that corrective measures be taken within such time as he may determine.

If, in the inspector's opinion, the refusal to work is based on grounds that are acceptable in the particular case of that worker but do not justify another worker's refusing to perform the work, the employer may, notwithstanding section 14, have the work performed by another worker, who may agree to perform it after being informed of the fact that the right of refusal has been exercised, and of the reasons therefor.

The inspector's decision must be substantiated and recorded in writing. It is transmitted by any appropriate means that provides the inspector with proof that it was delivered to the worker, the safety representative or the person replacing him, and to the employer or his agent.

20. The inspector's decision may be the object of an application for review and a contestation before the Administrative Labour Tribunal in accordance with sections 191.1 to 193.

The inspector's decision has effect immediately, notwithstanding any application for review.

1979, c. 63, s. 20; 1985, c. 6, s. 522; 1997, c. 27, s. 35; 2015, c. 15, s. 237.

24. A final decision applies as long as the circumstances remain unchanged.

1979, c. 63, s. 24.

25. An employer may require a worker who has exercised his right to refuse to work to remain at the workplace and assign him temporarily to other duties that he is reasonably capable of performing.

1979, c. 63, s. 25.

26. In cases where the exercise of the right to refuse to work prevents at least two other workers from working, the inspector must be present on the premises not later than six hours after his intervention has been required.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

If the inspector is not present within the prescribed time, the employer may, notwithstanding section 14, have the work performed by another worker who agrees to do the work after being informed that the right of refusal has been exercised, and of the reasons therefor.

1979, c. 63, s. 26.

27. Where two or more workers refuse to perform particular work by reason of the same danger, their cases are examined jointly and may be the subject of a decision concerning them jointly.

28. Where the exercise of the right of refusal results in depriving of work other workers in the undertaking, these other workers are deemed to be at work for the duration of the work stoppage.

The employer may, however, assign the other workers to other duties that they are reasonably capable of performing or require that they remain available at the workplace during the whole period thus remunerated.

1979, c. 63, s. 28.

29. The employer must allow the safety representative or, as the case may be, the person replacing him, to exercise the functions vested in him by sections 16, 18, 21 and 23.

The safety representative or the person replacing him is deemed to be working when he is exercising the functions vested in him referred to in this section.

1979, c. 63, s. 29.

30. No employer may dismiss, suspend or transfer a worker, practise discrimination or take reprisals against him or impose any other penalty on him on the ground that the worker exercised the right contemplated in section 12.

However, the employer may, within the 10 days following a final decision, dismiss, suspend or transfer the worker or impose another penalty on him if the worker abused his right.

1979, c. 63, s. 30; 1985, c. 6, s. 523.

31. No employer may dismiss, suspend or transfer a safety representative or the person replacing him, practise discrimination or take reprisals against him or impose any other penalty on him on the ground that the safety representative or person replacing him exercised a function conferred on him by this Act.

However, the employer, within the 10 days following a final decision respecting a worker's exercise of his right of refusal, may dismiss, suspend or transfer the safety representative or person replacing him or impose another penalty on him if the representative or person abused his function.

§ 3. — Protective re-assignment

32. A worker who furnishes the certificate prescribed by the Commission, which attests that his being exposed to a contaminant entails danger to him, in view of the fact that his health shows signs of deterioration, may request to be re-assigned to duties that do not entail exposure to a contaminant and that he is reasonably capable of performing, until the condition of his health allows him to resume his former duties and his working conditions conform to the standards established by regulation for that contaminant.

33. The certificate contemplated in section 32 may be issued by a physician in charge of occupational health by another physician or by a specialized nurse practitioner.

If the certificate is issued by a physician in charge of occupational health he must, at the worker's request, notify the physician or specialized nurse practitioner designated by the worker.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

If the certificate is issued by another physician or by a specialized nurse practitioner, that professional must, before issuing it, consult with a physician in charge of occupational health or, if there is no such physician, with the public health director of the region in which the establishment is situated, or the physician or specialized nurse practitioner designated by him.

1979, c. 63, s. 33; 1992, c. 21, s. 301; 2020, c. 6, s. 21; 2021, c. 27, a. 130.

34. The Commission may, by regulation,

- (1) identify the contaminants in relation to which a worker may exercise his right under section 32;
- (2) determine the criteria on which a deterioration of health associated with each contaminant identified under paragraph 1 warrants the exercise of the right under section 32;
- (3) specify the criteria on which a worker may be re-assigned, or be returned to his regular duties;
- (4) (paragraph repealed).

35. If a requested re-assignment is not made immediately, the worker may stop working until he is re-assigned or his health or working conditions allow him to return to his duties in accordance with section 32.

1979, c. 63, s. 35.

36. A worker is entitled, for the first five working days of his work stoppage, to be remunerated at his regular wage rate and to also receive from his employer, where section 42.11 or 1019.4 of the Taxation Act (chapter I-3) applies to the worker, remuneration equal to the aggregate of the tips that could reasonably be considered to be attributable to those days and that the worker would have reported to his employer under that section 1019.4 or that his employer would have attributed to him under that section 42.11.

At the end of that period, the worker is entitled to the income replacement indemnity to which he would be entitled under the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases (chapter A-3.001) if he then became unable to carry on his employment by reason of an employment injury within the meaning of that Act.

To decide a case under this section, the Commission shall apply the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases to the extent that it is consistent with this Act; its decision may be the object of an application for review and contestation before the Administrative Labour Tribunal in accordance with this Act.

1979, c. 63, s. 36; 1985, c. 6, s. 524; 1997, c. 85, s. 412; 1997, c. 27, s. 36; 2015, c. 15, s. 237.

37. 1979, c. 63, s. 178; 1985, c. 6, s. 544.

179. An inspector, in the performance of his duties, may, at any reasonable hour of the day or night, enter a place where activities are carried on in the fields contemplated in this Act and the regulations, and inspect that place.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

An inspector acting under this section has access to all the books, registers and records of any employer, principal contractor, supplier or other person carrying on an activity in the fields contemplated by this Act and the regulations. A person having custody, possession or control of these books, registers or records shall give communication of them to the inspector and facilitate his examination of them.

An inspector shall, on demand, produce a certificate of his office.

179.1. An inspector may not, without the consent of the worker, enter a place where telework is carried on if that place is situated in a dwelling house, unless the inspector has obtained a court order authorizing such entry.

A judge of the Court of Québec or a presiding justice of the peace having jurisdiction in the locality in which the house is situated may grant the order, on the conditions he determines, if he is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the worker or a person who is in such a place or nearby is exposed to a danger threatening his life, health, safety or physical or mental well-being.

180. The inspector may, in addition to his general powers,

- (2) require the employer or principal contractor, whichever is the case, to produce the plan of the installations and of the layout of the equipment;
- (3) take, free of charge, samples of any kind, particularly of objects used by the workers, for analysis; he must then inform the employer and, if possible, return the samples to him after analysis;
- (4) conduct tests and make photographs or recordings at a workplace;
- (5) in order to ensure that a building, a structure or civil engineering works are stable, require the employer, principal contractor or owner to produce an attestation of solidity signed by an engineer or architect, or an attestation contemplated in section 54;
- (6) in such cases as he may determine, instal a measuring device at a workplace, or cause it to be worn by a worker with the worker's written consent, or order the employer to instal it or cause it to be worn at the time and place the inspector indicates, and require the employer to transmit the data on the terms and conditions the inspector determines;
- (7) be accompanied by one or more persons of his choice while performing his duties.

1979, c. 63, s. 180.

181. On arriving at a workplace, and before making an investigation or inspection, an inspector shall take reasonable steps to advise the employer, the certified association and the health and safety representative. On a construction site, he shall advise the principal contractor, the health and safety coordinator and the health and safety representative.

182. If he considers it advisable, an inspector may issue a remedial order requiring a person to comply with this Act or the regulations, and fix the time in which he must comply.

1979, c. 63, s. 182.

183. The inspector shall communicate the findings of his investigation or inspection to the employer, the certified association, the representative association within the meaning of the Act respecting labour relations, vocational training and workforce management in the construction industry (chapter R-20) that has affiliated workers present on the construction site, the job-site committee, the health and safety committee, the health and safety coordinator, the principal contractor, the health and safety representative and the public health director; he shall send them a copy of any remedial order. If there is no committee, the employer shall post up copies of the remedial order in a sufficient number of conspicuous places easily accessible to the workers to ensure that they are informed.

184. A person to whom an inspector has given a remedial order shall carry it out in the appointed time, and inform the certified association, the health and safety committee, the safety representative and the inspector, as soon as possible, of the specific measures the person intends to take.

185. No person may hinder an inspector in the performance of his duties, mislead or attempt to mislead him by concealment or false or untruthful statements, refuse to give his name and address to the inspector or neglect to obey an order he may give under this Act or the regulations.

1979, c. 63, s. 185.

186. An inspector may order the suspension of work or the complete or partial shut-down of a workplace and, if necessary, affix seals, if he considers a worker's health, safety or physical or mental well-being to be endangered.

The inspector shall substantiate his decision in writing as soon as possible and indicate the steps to be taken to eliminate the danger.

Section 183 applies, with the necessary modifications, to the inspector's order.

1979, c. 63, s. 187.

188. No person may be admitted to a workplace shut down by an inspector except, with his authorization, to do the necessary work to eliminate the danger.

However, the application of the first paragraph cannot prevent an employer, principal contractor or owner from taking such conservation measures as are necessary to avoid the destruction or serious deterioration of the property in the workplace.

189. Work shall not be resumed nor the workplace reopened until authorized by the inspector.

Section 183 applies, with the necessary modifications, to the inspector's authorization.

190. Where a person contravenes this Act or the regulations, an inspector may order him to cease making, supplying, selling, leasing, distributing or installing the product, process, equipment, material, contaminant or dangerous substance concerned, and affix seals or confiscate such objects and order the person to cease every activity that might cause the emission of the contaminant concerned.

The inspector shall substantiate his decision in writing, indicating, where that is the case, the steps to be taken to bring the product, process, equipment, material, contaminant or dangerous substance, or the activity that might cause the emission of the contaminant, into conformity with the Act and the regulations.

The person is prohibited from again making, supplying, selling, leasing, distributing or installing the product, process, equipment, material, contaminant or dangerous substance, or resuming the activity that might cause the emission of a contaminant, until authorized by the inspector.

Section 183 applies, with the necessary modifications, to the inspector's order or authorization.

10. In accordance with this Act and the regulations, the worker is entitled, in particular,

(1) to training, information and counselling services in matters of occupational health and safety, especially in relation to his work and his work environment, and to receive appropriate instruction, training and supervision;

(2) to receive the preventive and curative health services relating to the risks to which he may be exposed;

(3) to receive his wages for the time spent undergoing a medical examination during employment required by this Act and the regulations, and the time spent for the travel required to undergo the examination. 16. On being informed, the supervisor or, as the case may be, the employer or his agent shall convoke the health and safety representative to examine the matter and the corrective measures he intends to apply.

17. If the worker maintains his refusal to perform the work when his supervisor or, as the case may be, the employer or his agent and the health and safety representative or the person replacing him are of opinion that no danger exists to justify the worker’s refusal to work or that his refusal to work is based on grounds that are acceptable in the particular case of that worker but do not justify another worker’s refusing to perform the work, the employer may, notwithstanding section 14, have the work performed by another worker. That other worker may accept to perform the work after being informed that the right of refusal has been exercised, and of the reasons therefor.

(3) the employer or his agent, if he believes that the performance of the work does not expose the worker to danger to his health, safety or physical or mental well-being or does not expose another person to such danger, or that the corrective measures taken have dissipated the danger.

19. The inspector shall determine immediately whether or not a danger exists that would justify the worker’s refusal to work. He may require the worker to resume his work. He may also prescribe temporary measures and require that corrective measures be taken within such time as he may determine.

If, in the inspector’s opinion, the refusal to work is based on grounds that are acceptable in the particular case of that worker but do not justify another worker’s refusing to perform the work, the employer may, notwithstanding section 14, have the work performed by another worker, who may agree to perform it after being informed of the fact that the right of refusal has been exercised, and of the reasons therefor.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

The inspector's decision must be substantiated and recorded in writing. It is transmitted by any appropriate means that provides the inspector with proof that it was delivered to the worker, the health and safety representative or the person replacing him, and to the employer or his agent.

(16) take the measures to ensure the protection of a worker exposed to physical or psychological violence, including spousal, family or sexual violence, in the workplace.

For the purposes of subparagraph 16 of the first paragraph, in a situation of spousal or family violence, the employer is required to take the measures if he knows or ought reasonably to know that the worker is exposed to such violence.

52. Every employer shall draw up and keep up to date a register of the contaminants and dangerous substances, identified by regulation, that are present in the employer's establishment. The content of the register, which may include, among other things, a list of the workers exposed to those contaminants or dangerous substances, and the manner in which the register is to be sent to the Commission, are determined by regulation.

54. In the cases determined by regulation, no employer or owner may undertake the construction of an establishment or alter its installations or equipment unless he has previously transmitted to the Commission the plans and specifications of an architect or engineer attesting to their conformity with the regulations, in accordance with the terms and conditions and within the time prescribed by regulation. A copy of the plans and specifications must be transmitted to the health and safety committee or, if there is no such committee, to the health and safety representative.

58. Every employer must prepare and implement a prevention program specific to each establishment employing at least 20 workers during the year.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

When, during a year, the number of workers in an establishment falls below 20, the employer must maintain the implemented prevention program until 31 December of the following year.

If an establishment employs fewer than 20 workers, the employer must prepare and implement a prevention program in the cases and on the conditions prescribed by regulation.

If the Commission considers it advisable for protecting workers' health or ensuring their safety and physical or mental well-being, it may require an employer to prepare and implement a prevention program within the time determined by the Commission, regardless of the number of workers in the establishment.

For the purpose of determining the number of workers, those whose services are lent or hired out to the employer must be considered.

A prevention program must be prepared, implemented and updated in the manner and within the time prescribed by regulation.

58.1. Despite section 58, an employer who employs workers in more than one establishment where activities of the same nature are carried on may prepare and implement a single prevention program for all or part of the establishments, which must also cover the establishments employing fewer than 20 workers. The employer must ensure beforehand that the functions set out in sections 78 and 90 can be adequately exercised, in particular considering the distance between the establishments concerned. The prevention program must take into account all the activities carried on in the establishments and apply for a period of not less than three years.

Where an employer ceases to implement the prevention program provided for in the first paragraph, he must, as soon as possible, implement a prevention program specific to each establishment in accordance with section 58.

If the Commission considers it advisable for protecting workers' health or ensuring their safety and physical or mental well-being, it may require the employer to prepare and implement, within the time determined by the Commission, a prevention program specific to each establishment it designates.

For the purpose of determining whether the activities carried on in an establishment are of the same nature, the exercise of comparable functions by workers and the related working conditions, in particular, must be taken into consideration. The employer shall take into account the application guide on that subject developed by the Commission and published on its website.

59. The object of a prevention program is to eliminate, at the source, risks to the health, safety and physical and mental well-being of workers.

Such a program must take into account the occupational health programs referred to in section 107, the regulations applicable to the establishment and, where applicable, the recommendations from the health and safety committee and must set out, in particular,

(1) the identification and analysis of the risks that may affect the health of the establishment's workers, including the chemical, biological, physical, ergonomic and psychosocial risks related to the work, and the risks that may affect the workers' safety, the identification and analysis having to include the risks that may affect in particular the health and safety of workers who are 16 years of age or under;

(2) the measures and priorities for action to eliminate or, failing that, to control the identified risks, giving precedence to the hierarchy of preventive measures established by regulation as well as the scheduling to accomplish the measures and priorities;

(3) the supervision, evaluation, maintenance and follow-up measures to ensure that the identified risks are eliminated or controlled;

(4) the identification of the individual protective means and equipment which are both in compliance with the regulations and best adapted to meet the needs of the establishment's workers;

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

- (5) the occupational health and safety training and information programs;
- (6) the pre-employment medical checkups and medical examinations during employment required by regulation;
- (7) the establishment and updating of a list of the dangerous substances used in the establishment and the contaminants that may be emitted there; and
- (8) the maintaining of an adequate first aid service to respond to emergencies.

The components contemplated in subparagraphs 4 and 5 of the second paragraph are determined by the health and safety committee, if any, in accordance with paragraphs 3 and 4 of section 78.

60. The employer shall send the prevention program and any updating of it to the health and safety committee, if any.

The employer shall also send to the Commission, every three years from the date of implementation of the program, on the form it prescribes, the priorities for action determined as part of his prevention program, the progress made with respect to the measures set out, and the follow-up on the measures that he has implemented to eliminate and control the risks identified for those priorities.

61. The Commission may, within the time it determines, order an employer to send it a prevention program or to amend the content of the program, in particular to bring it into conformity with the components of the occupational health programs the Commission prepares under section 107 that apply to the establishment of that employer.

The employer shall send the amended prevention program to the health and safety committee, the certified association and the health and safety representative.

§3.1. — Action plan

61.1. Where there is no requirement to prepare or implement a prevention program for an establishment, the employer must prepare and implement an action plan specific to that establishment.

An action plan must be prepared, implemented and updated in the manner and within the time prescribed by regulation.

61.2. The object of an action plan is to eliminate, at the source, dangers to the health, safety and physical and mental well-being of workers.

Such an action plan must take into account the occupational health programs referred to in section 107 and the regulations applicable to the establishment and must set out, in particular,

(1) the identification of the risks that may affect the health of the establishment's workers, including the chemical, biological, physical, ergonomic and psychosocial risks related to the work, as well as the risks that may affect the workers' safety, the identification having to include the risks that may affect in particular the health and safety of workers who are 16 years of age or under;

(2) the measures and priorities for action to eliminate or, failing that, to control the identified risks, giving precedence to the hierarchy of preventive measures established by regulation as well as the scheduling to accomplish the measures and priorities;

(3) the supervision and maintenance measures to ensure that the identified risks are eliminated or controlled;

(4) the identification of the individual protective means and equipment that, in addition to being in compliance with the regulations, are those best adapted to meet the needs of the establishment's workers; and

62. Every employer must inform the Commission of an incident, by the most rapid means of communication, and, within 24 hours, make a written report to it, in the form and with the information prescribed by regulation, if the incident has caused

(1) the death of a worker;

(2) the loss of a limb or of part of a limb, the total or partial loss of the use of a limb or a significant physical trauma to a worker;

(3) such serious injuries to two or more workers as probably to prevent them from performing their work for one working day; or

(4) material damage valued at $150,000 or more.

The employer shall also inform the health and safety committee and the health and safety representative.

The scene of the incident must remain unchanged until it has been investigated by the inspector, except to prevent an aggravation of its consequences, or unless the inspector authorizes a change.

Copy of the employer's report must be transmitted without delay to the health and safety committee, the health and safety representative and the certified association.

1979, c. 63, s. 62; 1985, c. 6, s. 531; 2009, c. 19, s. 18; 2021, c. 27, s. 148 and 233.

62.6. Subject to the cases provided for by regulation, an employer must, in respect of every hazardous product present in a workplace,

(1) transmit a copy of the safety data sheet concerning the controlled product to the health and safety committee, the health and safety representative or, where there is no health and safety committee or health and safety representative, to the certified association or, where there is no certified association, to the representative of the workers within the establishment;

(2) keep and make readily available to every worker, in the workplace, the safety data sheet concerning the controlled product, in accordance with the regulations;

(3) subject to section 62.7, disclose, on request, to any interested worker of the establishment, to the health and safety committee or to the health and safety representative or, where there is no health and safety committee or health and safety representative, to the certified association or, where there is no certified association, to the representative of the workers within the establishment, the sources of information in his possession relating to any toxicological data used in preparing the safety data sheet.

For the purposes of subparagraph 2 of the first paragraph, an employer must consult the health and safety committee or, in the absence of such a committee, the certified association or, if there is no certified association, the workers or their representative, as the case may be, on the best way to make safety data sheets available in the workplace.

62.13. The employer, a worker of the establishment, a member of the health and safety committee, a health and safety representative, a certified association representing a worker of the establishment or any interested person may, within the period prescribed by regulation, appeal from the decision rendered in respect of an application for exemption.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

68. A health and safety committee must be established in any establishment employing at least 20 workers during the year.

When, during a year, the number of workers in an establishment falls below 20, the health and safety committee must be maintained until 31 December of the following year.

The Commission may, if it considers it advisable for protecting workers' health or ensuring their safety and physical or mental well-being, require the establishment of a health and safety committee, regardless of the number of workers in the establishment.

For the purpose of determining the number of workers, those whose services are lent or hired out to the employer must be considered.

The obligation to establish a health and safety committee does not apply in the case of an establishment employing at least 20 workers for fewer than 21 days during the year.

68.1. Where an employer implements a prevention program in accordance with section 58.1, a health and safety committee acting for all the establishments covered by the prevention program must be established in place of the health and safety committees provided for in the first paragraph of section 68.

The provisions of this chapter that are applicable to a committee established in a single establishment apply, with the necessary modifications, to a committee established under the first paragraph.

Where the employer ceases to implement the prevention program provided for in section 58.1, one health and safety committee per establishment referred to in the first paragraph of section 68 must be established without delay.

68.2. The employer and the workers of each establishment referred to in the first paragraph of section 68.1 may agree to establish health and safety committees in addition to the health and safety committee established for all the establishments.

The workers' consent to that agreement is given by the certified associations that represent them and by the workers not represented by a certified association, in the manner determined between them.

The Commission may, if it considers it advisable for protecting workers' health or ensuring their safety and physical or mental well-being, require that additional health and safety committees be established for the establishments it designates.

The provisions of this chapter applicable to a health and safety committee established under section 68 apply to the additional health and safety committees, with the necessary modifications.

The prevention program prepared under section 58.1 must take into account the responsibilities of each additional health and safety committee.

2021, c. 27, s. 150.

69. A health and safety committee may be established in an establishment other than one of those referred to in sections 68 and 68.1.

This chapter does not apply to such a committee, which establishes its own rules.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

70. The number of workers' representatives on a health and safety committee is determined by agreement between the employer and the establishment's workers. If there is no agreement, that number is the one established in the cases and on the conditions prescribed by regulation.

The workers' consent to such an agreement is given by the certified associations that represent them and by the workers not represented by a certified association, in the manner determined between them.

The employer shall designate at least one member on the committee and he may designate as many members as there are workers' representatives on the committee.

71. At least one-half of the members of a committee, including the health and safety representative, shall represent the workers and be designated in accordance with section 72.

The other members of the committee shall be designated by the employer.

74. The health and safety committee's rules of operation, including the minimum frequency of meetings, are determined by agreement between its members.

Until an agreement is entered into concerning the minimum frequency of meetings, the committee shall hold one meeting every three months, subject to a greater frequency determined in the cases and on the conditions prescribed by regulation.

If there is no agreement, the minimum rules of operation apply, in the cases and on the conditions prescribed by regulation.

74.1. The health and safety committee's meetings are held during regular working hours, subject to an agreement between its members.

HEALTH AND SAFETY REPRESENTATIVE AND HEALTH AND SAFETY LIAISON OFFICER

2021, c. 27, s. 160.

DIVISION I

HEALTH AND SAFETY REPRESENTATIVE

2021, c. 27, s. 160.

87. Where a health and safety committee exists in an establishment, at least one health and safety representative must be designated from among the establishment's workers.

The health and safety representative is, by virtue of office, a member of the health and safety committee.

87.1. Despite the first paragraph of section 87, where a health and safety committee acting for the establishments covered by a prevention program is established under section 68.1, at least one health and safety representative shall be designated for those establishments.

The number of health and safety representatives as well as the designation procedure shall be established by agreement between the employer and the workers of each of those establishments.

The workers' consent to such an agreement is given by the certified associations that represent them and by the workers not represented by a certified association, in the manner determined between them.

If there is no agreement, a health and safety representative shall be designated, for the establishments covered by a prevention program, by the members representing the workers on the health and safety committee established under section 68.1 and shall be chosen from among those members.

Despite the second and fourth paragraphs, the Commission may require a health and safety representative to be designated in an establishment where the Commission considers it advisable for protecting workers' health or ensuring their safety and physical or mental well-being.

The provisions of this chapter that are applicable to a health and safety representative designated for a single establishment apply, with the necessary modifications, to a health and safety representative designated under this section.

Where the employer ceases to implement the prevention program provided for in section 58.1, at least one health and safety representative per establishment must be designated without delay in accordance with sections 87 and 88.

88. If an establishment, except an establishment covered by a prevention program under section 58.1, employs fewer than 20 workers during the year, at least one health and safety representative must be designated from among the establishment's workers in the cases and on the conditions prescribed by regulation.

For the purpose of determining the number of workers, those whose services are lent or hired out to the employer must be considered.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

88.1. If the Commission considers it advisable for protecting workers' health or ensuring their safety and physical or mental well-being, it may require that a health and safety representative be designated in an establishment where there is no health and safety committee.

The provisions of this chapter apply to such a representative.

89. In the case of sections 87, 88 and 88.1, health and safety representatives are designated in the same manner as workers' representatives to the health and safety committee under section 72.

90. The functions of a health and safety representative are

- (1) to inspect workplaces;
- (2) to receive copies of accident notices and investigate incidents that have caused or could have caused an accident;
- (3) to identify situations that may be a source of danger to workers, including situations specific to workers 16 years of age or under;
- (4) to make such recommendations to the health and safety committee as he deems appropriate, including recommendations concerning the psychosocial risks related to the work and recommendations concerning tasks that should not be performed by workers 16 years of age or under, or, if there is no such committee, to the workers or their certified association and the employer;
- (5) to assist workers in the exercise of their rights under this Act and the regulations;
- (6) to accompany the inspector on visits of inspection;
- (7) to intervene in the cases where a worker exercises his right of refusal;
- (8) to submit complaints to the Commission;
- (9) to cooperate in the preparation and implementation of the prevention program or action plan that must be prepared and implemented by the employer by presenting recommendations in writing to the employer, and to participate in the identification and analysis of risks that may affect the health and safety of the establishment's workers and in the identification of the contaminants and dangerous substances present in the workplace.

Where a health and safety committee exists in an establishment, the health and safety representative must inform it of the result of any investigation conducted under subparagraph 2 of the first paragraph and communicate to it the elements resulting from the identification and analysis the representative participated in under subparagraph 9 of that paragraph.

1979, c. 63, s. 90; 1985, c. 6, s. 533; 2021, c. 27, s. 163; 2023, c. 11, s. 10.

91. A health and safety representative must, within the time prescribed by regulation, participate in training programs whose content and duration are determined by regulation.

The health and safety representative may, without loss of pay, take time off as necessary to participate in such programs.

Registration, travel and accommodation expenses are borne by the Commission, in accordance with the regulations.

92. A health and safety representative may take time off work as necessary to exercise the functions contemplated in paragraphs 2, 6 and 7 of the first paragraph of section 90.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

The amount of time the health and safety representative may devote to the exercise of his other functions is determined by agreement between the members of the health and safety committee of the establishment. If there is no agreement, the minimum time, in the cases and on the conditions prescribed by regulation, applies.

In the case of a health and safety representative designated under section 88 or 88.1, the agreement referred to in the second paragraph is entered into between the representative and his employer.

93. A health and safety representative must notify his supervisor, his employer or his employer's agent, when he takes time off work to exercise his functions.

94. The employer must cooperate with the health and safety representative, provide him with the instruments or apparatus he may reasonably need and allow him to perform his functions.

95. (Repealed).

96. A health and safety representative is deemed to be at work when exercising his functions.

97. No employer may dismiss, suspend or transfer a health and safety representative, practise discrimination or take reprisals against him or impose any other penalty on him on the ground that he performed the functions of a health and safety representative.

However, the employer may dismiss, suspend or transfer the health and safety representative or impose any other penalty on him if he abused his functions.

98. One or more employers' associations and one or more union associations may enter into an agreement establishing a joint sector-based association on occupational health and safety to cover one or more sectors of activities to which they belong.

The agreement must contain all the components prescribed by regulation and comes into force on the approval of the Commission.

Failing an agreement, one or more employers' representatives and one or more workers' representatives may enter into an agreement to cover one or more sectors of activities to which they belong.

A sector of activities may not be covered by more than one joint sector-based association.

A sector-based association shall be administered by a joint board of directors composed of members who belong to each of the sectors of activities that the association covers.

98.1. A sector-based association may enter into an agreement with one or more sector-based associations with a view to exchanging training and services.

2021, c. 27, s. 168.

98.2. The sector-based associations are required to prepare a program of activities that complies with the priorities communicated to them by the Commission. They must also take into account the prevention objectives of this Act and the specific needs of each of the sectors of activities they cover.

2021, c. 27, s. 168.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

101. The object of a sector-based association is to provide training, information, research and counselling services to employers and workers in the sector of activities which it represents.

For the purposes of this chapter, where a health region has more than one integrated health and social services centre, a reference to such a centre is a reference to the one resulting from the amalgamation of an agency and other institutions within the meaning of the Act to modify the organization and governance of the health and social services network, in particular by abolishing the regional agencies (chapter O-7.2).

Analytical Index

INTRODUCTION

The analytical index enables the user to find, by means of a descriptor or keyword, a concept developed in matters of legislation or regulation.

The analytical index consists essentially of two elements: a) the descriptor and b) the reference.

THE DESCRIPTOR

Descriptors are classified in alphabetical order and are organized by levels.

The main descriptor is complemented by secondary descriptors of 1st and 2nd level; each level clarifies the preceding one.

Exemple :

SUPERIOR COURT	:	Main descriptor
Appeal	:	Secondary descriptor 1 st
Delay	:	Secondary descriptor 2 nd

The descriptor's function is not to inform on the content of the concept but to indicate its localization. Therefore, the descriptor has a synthetized form so as to make the index easier to consult.

THE REFERENCE

There are two types of reference :

- the reference SEE indicates that a descriptor is rejected to the advantage of another descriptor;
- the reference SEE ALSO acts as a link between descriptors so as to enable the user to carry out a more thorough research in the analytical index.
